THE CHURCH AT THE CLOSE OF AN AGE

Postconciliar Catholicism at the end of the generation of Vatican II

Friday, 4 April, 2014, at 7:00 P.M.

The Union League Club, 38 East 37th Street, New York City

Prof. Roberto de Mattei: “The End of Vatican II in Historical Perspective”

Dr. John Lamont: “Suprema Lex: The Church and the Rule of Law”

All are welcome to attend; admission is free of charge. The conference will be preceded by Solemn Vespers in the Traditional Roman rite at 5:30 p.m. at Saint Patrick’s Old Cathedral in Lower Manhattan, only 15 minutes from the Union League Club by subway (#6 line). For detailed directions see the Society’s website.

Roberto de Mattei is Professor of Modern History and History of Christianity at the European University in Rome, and the author of more than a dozen books. A well-known commentator on Catholic affairs in his homeland, his incisive history of Vatican II was published in 2010, and is now available in English as The Second Vatican Council – An Unwritten Story.

John R.T. Lamont is a philosopher of religion and theologian based in Sydney, Australia. A significant contributor to the contemporary revival of Thomism, his work has appeared in leading academic journals as well as more popular periodicals such as First Things. His acclaimed study of the rational basis for Christian faith, Divine Faith, was published in 2004.
